THE TRIAL CHAMBER

NOTING the oral agreement of the Parties to the measures outlined below at the status conference of 16 January 1998,

PURSUANT to Rule 54 of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence of the International Tribunal,

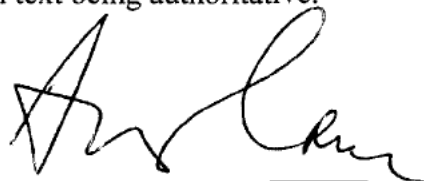

HEREBY ORDERS AS FOLLOWS:

- 1) The Prosecutor's motion seeking leave to amend the indictment shall be filed no later than Monday 9 February 1998;
- 2) Defence counsel shall file their responses to this motion no later than Monday 23 February 1998;
- 3) If the Prosecutor's motion is granted and the revised indictment includes new charges, the accused shall make a further appearance to plead to the new charges on a date to be set;
- 4) The Defence shall file any preliminary motions arising in connection with the new charges within sixty days of the further appearance, if any;
- 5) Subject to further notice to the Parties, the date for commencement of the trial is tentatively set at Monday 22 June 1998, it being understood that if courtroom space becomes available and the parties agree to it, commencement of the trial may be brought forward;
- 6) Not less than thirty days prior to the commencement of the trial, that is by Friday 22 May 1998, the Prosecutor shall submit to the Trial Chamber the statements of the witnesses it intends to call and any other documentary material upon which it intends to rely, it being understood that these statements and material shall not be used as evidence unless and until admitted by the Trial Chamber in the course of the trial. Furthermore, within the same time-limit, the Prosecutor shall submit a tentative estimate of the length of the examination-in-chief for each witness;

- 7) By Friday 22 May 1998 the Prosecutor shall file a pre-trial brief clarifying the allegations in the indictment, setting out the details of the case and identifying the points at issue;
- 8) By Tuesday 2 June 1998 the Defence shall file one or more documents setting out those points, if any, of the indictment and the Prosecutor's pre-trial brief which are admitted, those which are denied and the grounds for so doing, and setting out in general terms the defence to the indictment.

Done in English and French, the English text being authoritative.
