THIS TRIAL CHAMBER of the International Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of the Former Yugoslavia since 1991 (“International Tribunal”),

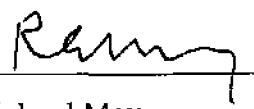

BEING SEISED of a “Brief on the Provision of Adequate Facilities to Allow the Accused to Defend Himself” filed by the Amici Curiae on 1 March 2002 (“the Amici Brief”),

CONSIDERING the right of the accused to have adequate time and facilities for the preparation of his defence pursuant to Article 21, paragraph 4, of the Statute of the International Tribunal

ORDERS the Registrar of the International Tribunal, no later than [14 days] to file a written report with the Trial Chamber setting out:

1. A summary of facilities made available to the accused in connection with the preparation of his defence since his arrival at the United Nations Detention Unit, both at the Detention Unit and while the accused is physically present at the seat of the International Tribunal to attend the trial, including any restrictions that may apply as to the timing or frequency of access to these facilities;
2. A statement of the facilities currently available to the accused and any restrictions relating thereto; and
3. Any observations on the Amici Brief which the Registrar may think appropriate to raise at this time.

Done in English and French, the English text being authoritative.
