TRIAL CHAMBER I, SECTION A (“the Chamber”) of the International Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of the Former Yugoslavia since 1991 (“the Tribunal”);

BEING SEISED OF the “Prosecution’s Motion for Variation of the Continuous Court Sessions” filed on 27 May 2002, in which the Prosecution argues that afternoon proceedings create “additional pressures and hardships”, that the present case is sitting in the afternoon for three consecutive months; and requests that the schedule is shifted from the afternoon to the morning so that the burden of being in the afternoon is distributed more fairly between the cases;

CONSIDERING that the Chamber has consulted with the Chamber in the case of Prosecution v. Simić, which has agreed to a rotation;

FOR THE FOREGOING REASONS

ORDERS that the Chamber will be sitting in the morning from 17 June to 28 June 2002, and;

REQUESTS the Registry to make the necessary arrangements.

Done in both English and French, the English version being authoritative.

Dated this twenty-ninth day of May 2002,
At The Hague,
The Netherlands

Judge Liu Daqun
Presiding Judge
