THE PROSECUTOR

v.

STOJAN ŽUPLJANIN

WARRANT OF ARREST
And ORDER FOR SURRENDER

TO: The Authorities of any member State of the United Nations

I, Liu Daqun, Judge of the International Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of the former Yugoslavia since 1991 (the “International Tribunal”);

HAVING BEEN DESIGNATED as the duty Judge by the President of the International Tribunal pursuant to Rule 28 of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence (“the Rules”) for the period from 12 December 2003 to 19 December 2003 and for the period from 9 January 2004 to 16 January 2004;

BEING SEIZED of a motion filed on 10 December 2003 by the Office of the Prosecutor, whereby the Prosecution requests that:

- 1) the duty Judge to issue a warrant of arrest and order for surrender for STOJAN ŽUPLJANIN (the “Accused”), which would be addressed to the authorities of any member State of the United Nations;
- 2) the duty Judge order that copies of the warrant of arrest be transmitted to the Office of the Prosecutor, which may deliver them to the competent authorities to any member State of the United Nations in whose territory or under whose jurisdiction each the Accused resides, or was last known to be, or is believed by the Prosecution to be likely to be found;

NOTING that, notwithstanding the fact that the Prosecution’s motion was erroneously addressed to me at the time it was filed, I have agreed to deal with it;

NOTING that the amended indictment submitted by the Prosecution against STOJAN ŽUPLJANIN was confirmed by Judge Rodrigues on 14 March 1999, a copy of which is annexed to this warrant of arrest and order for surrender;

NOTING the previous warrants of arrest and orders for surrender issued in this case and specifically addressed to some States and to the Office of the Prosecutor;

RECALLING Rule 55 of the Rules entitled “Execution of Arrest Warrants” and Rule 59*bis* of the Rules entitled “Transmission of Arrest Warrants”;

TAKING INTO ACCOUNT that, according to Rule 59*bis* of the Rules, a permanent Judge may order the Registrar to transmit to an appropriate authority or international body or the Prosecutor a copy of a warrant for the arrest of an accused, on such terms as the Judge may determine;

CONSIDERING that, although some member State of the United Nations may already have received copies of the arrest warrants, it is necessary to amend the previous arrest warrants in view of the Prosecution's requests since they did not direct the authorities of any member State of the United Nations to search for, arrest and surrender the Accused to the Tribunal;

CONSIDERING FURTHER that, for reasons of urgency, it is appropriate to authorise, pursuant to Rule 59bis, the Prosecutor to directly transmit this warrant of arrest and order for surrender to the competent authorities to which this order is addressed;

PURSUANT TO United Nations Security Council Resolution 827 of 25 May 1993, Articles 19(2) and 29 of the Statute of the International Tribunal (the "Statute") and Rules 28, 54, 55 and 59bis of the Rules;

HEREBY

DIRECT AND AUTHORISE the competent authorities of any member State of the United Nations to which this warrant is transmitted to search for, arrest, detain and surrender to the International Tribunal:

STOJAN ŽUPLJANIN, born in 1951, in the village of Maslovare, Kotor Varoš Municipality, in Bosnia and Herzegovina; graduated from law school in Sarajevo and was employed by the Banja Luka Secretariat of the Interior (SUP), working as the Commander of the police station in Mejdan and then as Head of the ordinary crimes office at the central police station in Banja Luka; from 1991 on, served as the head or commander of the Regional Security Services Centre (CSB) which had offices of both the Public Security Service (SJB) or police, and the State Security Service (SDB), commonly referred to as the secret police; nominated for that position to the Banja Luka Municipal Board of the SDS on 25 January 1991; later served as the Minister of Internal Affairs of the Autonomous Region of Krajina (ARK).

Alleged to have committed, in the period from 1 April 1992 to 31 December 1992, in the territory of Bosnia and Herzegovina, a crime against humanity, punishable under Article 5(h) and 7(1) and 7(3) of the Statute;

And to advise STOJAN ŽUPLJANIN at the time of his arrest, in a language that he understands, of his rights as set forth in Article 21 of the Statute and, mutatis mutandis, in Rules 42 and 43 of the Rules, which are annexed hereto, and of his right to remain silent, and to caution him that any statement he makes shall be recorded and may be used in evidence. The indictment and review of the indictment (and all other documents annexed to the present warrant of arrest) must also be brought to the attention of STOJAN ŽUPLJANIN. A copy of the indictment, in a language that he understands, must be given to him.

REQUEST that, upon the arrest of STOJAN ŽUPLJANIN, the authorities of any member State of the United Nations executing this warrant promptly notify the Registrar of the International Tribunal so that he may be transferred to the International Tribunal pursuant to Rule 57 of the Rules;

REQUEST the authorities of any member State of the United Nations in whose territory or under whose jurisdiction STOJAN ŽUPLJANIN resides, or was last known to be, or is believed by the Prosecution to be likely to be found and to which this warrant is transmitted, to report forthwith to the Registrar of the International Tribunal if they are unable to execute this warrant of arrest and to indicate the reasons for such non-execution, pursuant to Rule 59 (A) of the Rules;

ORDER the Registrar to transmit to the Prosecutor a copy of this warrant for arrest and order for surrender, in order for the Prosecutor to be in the position to deliver this warrant of arrest and order for surrender to the competent authorities of any member State of the United Nations in whose territory or under whose jurisdiction STOJAN ŽUPLJANIN resides, or was last known to be, or is believed by the Prosecution to be likely to be found;
