JOINT MOTION FOR ON-SITE VISIT

The Office of the Prosecutor:

TRIAL CHAMBER I, SECTION A, (“Trial Chamber”) of the International Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of the Former Yugoslavia since 1991 (“Tribunal”),

BEING SEISED OF a “Joint Motion for On-Site Visit,” filed by the Parties on a confidential basis on 2 June 2004 (“Joint Motion”), in which the Parties request that the Trial Chamber conduct an on-site visit to certain places and sites in the Republika Srpska, Republic of Bosnia and Herzegovina,

NOTING that the Parties submit that an on-site visit would assist the Trial Chamber in, inter alia, assessing the evidence at a later stage; obtaining first-hand knowledge of places mentioned in the Indictment and at trial; gain first-hand knowledge as to distances and the topography of certain areas; and obtain first-hand knowledge of the travel routes relevant to the Indictment,

NOTING that the Parties submit that while the on-site visit “will not itself have evidentiary value,” such a visit is in the interests of justice,

NOTING that the Parties further submit that it is not necessary for either accused to be present during the on-site visit, but that a representative of each Defence team and of the Office of the Prosecutor should be present to “address any potential for prejudice that may arise during an on-site visit”,

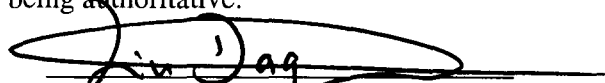

NOTING that while the Parties have indicated that the on-site visit would include locations in four municipalities, no specific locations have been identified by the Parties,

CONSIDERING that a list of the specific places and sites that the Parties propose for the site-visit would be of assistance to the Trial Chamber in its determination of whether a site-visit, consisting of the Trial Chamber and a representative of each of the Parties, would be both feasible and in the interests of justice,

PURSUANT TO Rule 4 and Rule 54 of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence of the Tribunal,

HEREBY ORDERS the Parties to submit a list of the proposed specific places and sites for inclusion during the on-site visit, including specific grid-references for each location, within 14 days of this Order.

Done in English and French, the English version being authoritative.
