TRIAL CHAMBER II (“Trial Chamber”) of the International Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of the Former Yugoslavia since 1991 (“Tribunal”);

BEING SEISED OF the “Assigned Pro Bono Counsel Motion Seeking Leave to Reply and Reply to the ‘Prosecution’s Response to Accused Boškoski’s Confidential Motion to Ensure a Fair Trial’” (“Motion”), filed on 19 May 2006, in which Counsel for Boškoski seeks leave to reply to the “Prosecution’s Response to Accused Boškoski’s Confidential Motion to Ensure a Fair Trial” and submits arguments in reply;

NOTING that the Motion was filed after the Trial Chamber issued its “Decision on the Motions of Fair Trial and Extensions of Time”, which dealt with the issues that the Motion is concerned with;

PURSUANT to Rule 54 of the Tribunal’s Rules of Procedure and Evidence;

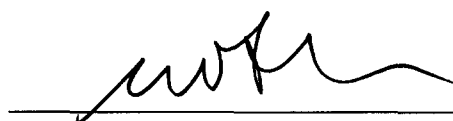

HEREBY FINDS the Motion moot.

Done in English and French, the English version being authoritative.

Dated this fourteenth day of June 2006,

At The Hague

The Netherlands

Judge Carmel Agius
