The Republic of Croatia

TRIAL CHAMBER III (“Chamber”) of the International Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of the Former Yugoslavia since 1991 (“Tribunal”);

BEING SEIZED OF the partly confidential “Bruno Stojić’s Motion for Provisional Release” and its two annexes (Confidential Annex I and Annex 2) filed on 1 June 2006 (“Bruno Stojić’s Motion”) by Counsel for the Accused Bruno Stojić (“Defence for the Accused Stojić”) whereby the Defence for the Accused Stojić requests the provisional release of the Accused Bruno Stojić (“Accused Stojić”) to Zagreb, Republic of Croatia, for three weeks during the 2006 summer recess;

NOTING the confidential “Prosecution Response to Defence Applications for Provisional Release during Summer Recess” filed on 15 June 2006 (“Prosecution Response”) by the Office of the Prosecutor (“Prosecution”);

NOTING the confidential “Addendum to Motion of Bruno Stojić for Period of Provisional Release During 2006 Summer Recess” and its two annexes filed on 21 June 2006 (“Addendum”) by the Defence for the Accused Stojić whereby the Defence for the Accused Stojić submits new family reasons in support of its initial application for the provisional release of the Accused Stojić;

CONSIDERING that in support of its Motion and Addendum the Defence for the Accused Stojić submits that: 1) the Accused Stojić surrendered voluntarily to the Tribunal;<sup>1</sup> 2) while on earlier release the Accused Stojić fully complied with the conditions imposed by the Trial Chamber in its decision on provisional release;<sup>2</sup> 3) in its letter of 24 May 2006 the Government of the Republic of Croatia pledged that the Accused Stojić would comply with the conditions imposed by the Tribunal should the application for provisional release be granted by the Chamber and guaranteed that the Accused Stojić would return to The Hague at the request of the Chamber;<sup>3</sup> 4) the Accused Stojić personally pledges that he will fully comply with all the conditions of provisional release imposed by the Tribunal;<sup>4</sup> and 5) as the spouse of the Accused

Stojić is in a precarious state of health and his parents are 75 years old a visit by the Accused Stojić would be beneficial to them;<sup>5</sup>

CONSIDERING that in its Response the Prosecution opposes the motions for provisional release of all the accused primarily because the reasons given by the accused in support of their motions do not constitute humanitarian grounds for release;<sup>6</sup>

CONSIDERING alternatively that should the Chamber grant the motions, the Prosecution requests that: 1) the accused be prohibited from entering and travelling in Bosnia and Herzegovina; and 2) the accused be prohibited from having any contact with any witness, potential witness or victim;<sup>7</sup>

CONSIDERING that pursuant to Rule 65 of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence (“Rules”) the Chamber may order provisional release “only if it is satisfied that the accused will appear for trial and, if released, will not pose a danger to any victim, witness or other person”;

CONSIDERING that the Accused Stojić, while on earlier release, complied with all the conditions imposed by Trial Chamber I in its order dated 30 July 2004;<sup>8</sup>

CONSIDERING that the host country has not objected to any provisional release proceedings;<sup>9</sup>

CONSIDERING that in its letter of 24 May 2006 the Government of the Republic of Croatia provided guarantees to the effect that the Accused would return to The Hague and would not abscond if released;

CONSIDERING further that the Republic of Croatia has undertaken to cover the transport costs of the Accused Stojić from The Netherlands to Zagreb and back;

CONSIDERING that the Accused Stojić pledges that he will fully comply with all the conditions for provisional release imposed by the Tribunal;

<sup>8</sup> The Prosecutor v. Prlić et al., Case No. IT-04-74-PT, Order on Provisional Release of Bruno Stojić, 30 July 2004.

CONSIDERING in addition that, given the Accused's appropriate behaviour on the previous occasion, the Chamber is satisfied that, if released, the Accused Stojić will not pose a danger to any victim, witness or other person;

CONSIDERING that the Chamber will adjourn proceedings for the summer recess and that the presence of the Accused Stojić will therefore not be required in court;

CONSIDERING that the application for provisional release submitted by the Accused Stojić to visit his ailing spouse may be considered as a request based on humanitarian grounds;

CONSIDERING that the Defence for the Accused Stojić submitted medical certificates to the effect that the spouse of the Accused Stojić is ill;

CONSIDERING that a brief visit by the Accused Stojić might help his spouse in her hour of need;

CONSIDERING that the conditions set out in Rule 65 of the Rules have been met;

CONSIDERING, however, that the period of provisional release should be limited to nine days, including travel;

CONSIDERING that such a short visit will enable the police authorities of the Republic of Croatia to carry out effective surveillance of the Accused Stojić, thereby providing an additional guarantee that he will appear for trial after the summer recess;

CONSIDERING that the Chamber is the opinion that during his stay in his country the Accused Stojić must be under continuous surveillance by the authorities of the Republic of Croatia in order to guarantee his own safety and appearance for trial;

CONSIDERING further that in order to facilitate surveillance as ordered, the Chamber has decided that wherever possible the accused will be released in succession;

CONSIDERING therefore that the Accused Stojić will be released from 23 July 2006 to 31 July 2006;

FOR THE FOREGOING REASONS,

PURSUANT TO Rule 65 of the Rules
