THIS TRIAL CHAMBER of the International Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed on the Territory of the Former Yugoslavia since 1991 (“Tribunal”),

BEING SEISED OF the “Joint Defence Motion for Extension of Time” filed jointly by Counsel for Mile Mrkšić, Miroslav Radić and Veselin Šljivančanin (“Defence”) on 12 February 2007 (“Motion”) in which the Defence request that, due to technical and translation matters, they be granted an extension of time to file their written briefs no later than 19 February 2007 and to commence closing arguments on 5 March 2007;

NOTING the “Prosecution Response to Joint Defence Motion for Extension of Time”, filed on 13 February 2007, in which the Office of the Prosecutor (“Prosecution”) adopts a neutral position to the extension sought by the Defence, but requests that the time period between the filing and the commencement of oral submissions is not diminished;

NOTING the oral order made by the Chamber on 1 December 2006 pursuant to which the parties are to file their final trial briefs no later than 16 February 2007 and oral arguments are to be heard between 28 February 2007 and 2 March 2007;

CONSIDERING that, in the present case, good cause has been shown to warrant the extension of time sought by the Defence;

CONSIDERING, further, that on 13 February 2007 the Prosecution filed its “Motion to Reopen Prosecution Case” requesting that the Chamber reopen the case for the limited purpose of receiving as exhibits an audio recording and its transcript from the bar table;

CONSIDERING that the Chamber must decide on the Prosecution’s “Motion to Reopen Prosecution Case” before the parties submit their final trial briefs;

For the foregoing reasons, and pursuant to Rules 86 and 127 of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence, the Trial Chamber orders that

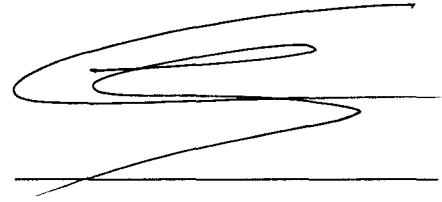

- (1) final trial briefs shall be filed no later than noon, 26 February 2007,
- (2) closing arguments will be heard on 14, 15, and 16 March 2007.
