THIS TRIAL CHAMBER of the International Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of the former Yugoslavia since 1991 (“Tribunal”) is seised of a motion filed by Counsel for Momčilo Perišić (“Counsel” and “Accused”, respectively) seeking a modification of the terms of provisional release and hereby renders a decision (“Decision”) thereon.

1. On 22 February 2008, Counsel filed the “Request for Alteration of Conditions of Provisional Release with Annex A” (“Motion”), in which he requests modification of the condition of the Accused’s provisional release that requires the Accused to remain within the confines of the municipality of Belgrade.<sup>1</sup> Specifically, Counsel requests permission for the Accused to travel to Koštunići, a town in Serbia, on the following dates: (i) 15 – 30 March 2008; and (ii) 15 – 30 April 2008.<sup>2</sup> The Accused wishes to travel to Koštunići to visit the graves of his brother and close family members, including his parents, and to offer his support and condolences to his brother’s widow, Vedrana Perišić,<sup>3</sup>
2. Counsel notes that the Accused has previously sought permission ten times from the Trial Chamber for a modification of the conditions of his provisional release, and that those requests were granted.<sup>4</sup>
3. Counsel also submits that the Accused has fully complied with the Chamber’s previous orders pertaining to his stay in Koštunići. Counsel attaches to the Motion an annex containing correspondence from the Ministry of Justice of the Republic of Serbia dated 19 February 2008. Counsel states that this correspondence confirms the Accused’s previous cooperation during his stay in Koštunići and compliance with the Trial Chamber’s conditions outlined in the decision of 9 June 2005. Counsel finally points out that the Ministry of Justice of the Republic of Serbia fully supports the request of the Accused.<sup>5</sup>
4. The Trial Chamber notes that the Prosecution has not responded to the Motion.
5. The Trial Chamber considers that sufficient reasons have been given, and sufficient guarantees provided, to warrant the temporary modification of the conditions of the Accused’s provisional release.
