THIS TRIAL CHAMBER of the International Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of the former Yugoslavia since 1991 (“Tribunal”) hereby renders this Order on submissions of the parties on the issue of the manner in which the Accused’s interviews conducted by the Prosecution prior to the commencement of the trial are to be used evidentially in the case (“issue”).

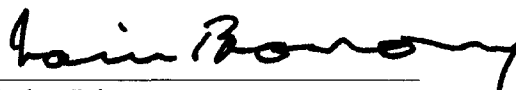

1. At the hearing held on 13 March 2008, the Trial Chamber raised the issue with the parties in order to ascertain the position of the Prosecution in the wake of recent Appeals Chamber jurisprudence.¹ The Prosecution indicated that it would “stand ... with the Court of Appeal.” The Milutinović and Pavković Defences advanced views upon the issue, including that the Prosecution should be bound by its previous positions upon the matter² and that it would be beneficial to settle the issue in advance of the filing of final trial briefs pursuant to Rule 86(B).

2. The Chamber considers that it would be in the interests of a fair and expeditious trial to afford the parties an opportunity to fully address this issue prior to the filing of final trial briefs in the above-captioned matter.

3. Accordingly, the Trial Chamber, pursuant to Rule 54 of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence of the Tribunal, hereby ORDERS as follows:

- a. The parties shall, by no later than Wednesday, 19 March 2008, file written submissions (if any) upon this issue.
- b. The parties shall address the Chamber orally upon this issue at a hearing to be held on Thursday, 20 March 2008 at 2:15 p.m.

Done in English and French, the English text being authoritative.
