TRIAL CHAMBER III (“Chamber”) of the International Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of the Former Yugoslavia since 1991 (“Tribunal”),

SEIZED of “Jadranko Prlić’s Motion to Admit Presidential Transcripts”, filed by Counsel for the Accused Prlić (“Prlić Defence”) on 3 November 2008 (“Motion”), in which the Prlić Defence requests that the Chamber admit, pursuant to Rule 89 (C) of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence (“Rules”), excerpts of 71 presidential transcripts (“Proposed Exhibits”),

NOTING the “Prosecution’s Response to Jadranko Prlić’s Motion to Admit Presidential Transcript Material”, filed by the Office of the Prosecutor (“Prosecution”) on 18 November 2008, in which the Prosecution, while not objecting the principle of the admission of the Proposed Exhibits, nevertheless raises several observations on the Motion,

CONSIDERING that the other Defence teams did not file a response to the Motion,

CONSIDERING that in support of the Motion, the Prlić Defence requests that the Chamber admit the Proposed Exhibits which in particular would allow the excerpts of the presidential transcripts produced by the Prosecution, and already admitted by the Chamber, to be placed in their proper context,<sup>1</sup>

CONSIDERING that the Prlić Defence asserts that due to the time constraints imposed by the Chamber, it decided not to present the Proposed Exhibits through a witness in court but to do so by way of written motion,<sup>2</sup>

CONSIDERING that the Prlić Defence submits that the Proposed Elements originate from the government of the Republic of Croatia; that while their reliability and probative value may nevertheless be challenged due to an absence of information concerning their preservation and transmission,<sup>3</sup> it nevertheless requests that they be admitted because the Chamber has already admitted several excerpts from presidential transcripts tendered by the Prosecution,<sup>4</sup>

CONSIDERING furthermore that, according to the Prlić Defence, the Motion conforms to the Chamber's guidelines for the admission of documentary evidence,<sup>5</sup>

CONSIDERING that in the Response, the Prosecution notes that the Prlić Defence lacked precision when laying out its arguments, notably by merely referring generally to paragraph 17 of the second amended Indictment of 11 June 2008 ("Indictment"), without specifying the relevant parts of this paragraph to which each Proposed Exhibit allegedly refers,<sup>6</sup>

CONSIDERING, however, that the Prosecution does not object to the Motion, but states that it reserves the right to challenge the Proposed Exhibits at a later time,<sup>7</sup>

CONSIDERING, as a preliminary matter, that the Chamber wishes to point out that it disapproves, both in form and in substance, of the practice adopted by the Prosecution in its Response, insofar as, on one hand, it merely presented arguments in the footnotes that should have been mentioned in the body of the text and, on the other hand, stated that it was reserving the right to challenge the Proposed Exhibits at a later time, instead of availing itself of this right in its Response,<sup>8</sup>

CONSIDERING furthermore, that the Chamber cannot accept the argument put forward by the Prlić Defence according to which the Proposed Exhibits were not introduced through a witness due to the insufficient time allocated by the Chamber,

CONSIDERING that while the Chamber can accept that due to time constraints the Prlić Defence may request the admission of documents by way of written motion, it nevertheless considers that the Prlić Defence chose not to put the Proposed Exhibits to the witnesses who testified, even though it was allocated 95 hours by the Chamber to present its case,<sup>9</sup>

<sup>9</sup> Decision Allocating Time to the Defence to Present its Case, 25 April 2008, para. 44.

CONSIDERING that, despite this observation, the Chamber deems it necessary, for the sake of fairness, to examine the Motion; that indeed, it has already admitted several excerpts from presidential transcripts presented by the Prosecution by way of a written motion during the presentation of its case,

CONSIDERING that the Chamber will accordingly examine the Motion; that in this respect it recalls Guideline 9 on the admission of documentary evidence by way of written motion set out in the “Decision Adopting Guidelines for the Presentation of Defence Evidence” of 24 April 2008 (“Guideline 9”),

CONSIDERING that the Chamber notes that the Prlić Defence requests the admission of Proposed Elements that it considers relevant, and for which it provided an English translation when one was missing,

CONSIDERING that the Chamber also notes that pursuant to Guideline 9, the Prlić Defence provided information pertaining to the number, title, and description of the Proposed Exhibits and their source, as well as to the importance of the Proposed Exhibits by referring to the relevant paragraphs in the Indictment,

CONSIDERING however that the Chamber finds, as legitimately raised by the Prosecution in the Response, that the Prlić Defence only partly met the requirements of Guideline 9 by limiting itself to simply referring to the relevant paragraphs of the Indictment, without specifying the relevant passages, and by simply referring to the witnesses that already appeared before the Chamber and to the exhibits admitted into evidence dealing with the same paragraphs of the Indictment, without any explanation as to their relation to the Proposed Exhibits,

CONSIDERING furthermore that the Chamber finds that in the Motion the Prlić Defence failed to specify, for each of the Proposed Exhibits, the page number of the attached translation of the exhibit appearing in the ecourt system on the right-hand side of the screen and its corresponding version of the document original in BCS, thereby making it difficult to read,

CONSIDERING that despite the shortcomings of the Motion, the Chamber nevertheless examined the Proposed Exhibits and finds, as the Prlić Defence rightly claimed, that the majority of the Proposed Exhibits are pertinent in that they present contextual elements in relation to the other excerpts of the presidential transcripts presented as evidence by the Prosecution and admitted by the Chamber,

CONSIDERING furthermore that the Chamber recalls that it has already admitted excerpts of presidential transcripts, as have other Tribunal Chambers, and has no reason to doubt their authenticity,

CONSIDERING therefore that the Chamber holds that the Proposed Exhibits marked “admitted” in the Annex attached to this decision present sufficient indicia of reliability, relevance, and probative value and should be admitted into evidence,

CONSIDERING however that the Chamber finds that some of the Proposed Exhibits lack relevance, not necessary because they are redundant, or have technical defects, and are thus marked “not admitted” in the in the Annex attached to this decision,

CONSIDERING finally that the Chamber finds that some excerpts of the Proposed Exhibits have already been admitted and that, consequently, the motion of the Prlić Defence in respect of them is moot, as is also indicated in the in the Annex attached to this decision,

CONSIDERING, lastly, that the Chamber deems it necessary for the Registry and the parties to consult in order to prepare, if possible, a single document grouping together the translations of each excerpt of the presidential transcripts admitted by the Chamber; thereby facilitating reading of the whole,

FOR THE FOREGOING REASONS,

PURSUANT TO Rule 89 (C) of the Rules

PARTIALLY GRANTS the Motion,

DISMISSES AS MOOT the Motion in respect of the excerpts from the Proposed Exhibits that have already been admitted, as indicated in the Annex attached to this decision,

ADMITS the pages of the presidential transcripts that appear as admitted in the Annex attached to this decision,

REJECTS in all other respects the pages of the presidential transcripts that appear as not admitted in the Annex attached to this decision, AND

INVITES the Registry and the parties to come to an agreement, if possible, on a method to facilitate easier reading of the passages from the admitted presidential transcripts as a whole.
