Procedural History and Submissions

1. Witness Marko Rajčić testified before this Chamber on 18, 19, 20, and 23 February 2009. On two occasions during his testimony, Mr Rajčić requested the Chamber to move into private session.<sup>1</sup>
2. When first requesting private session on 19 February 2009, the Chamber informed Mr Rajčić that the Chamber was already in private session due to the confidential nature of the information being discussed at the time of the request.<sup>2</sup> After being informed that the Chamber was already in private session, Mr Rajčić continued his testimony.
3. On 23 February 2009, Mr Rajčić made his second request to move into private session.<sup>3</sup> The Chamber allowed Mr Rajčić's request but, after having heard the witness's testimony, inquired with the parties whether the reason given by Mr Rajčić to move into private session was sufficient under the Rules of Procedure and Evidence ("Rules").<sup>4</sup> The Gotovina Defence stated that in order to determine whether the reason for the request was sufficient under the Rules there should be an inquiry into Rule 75 of the Rules.<sup>5</sup> The Prosecution objected and stated that there was no proper basis for the private session request.<sup>6</sup> After having heard the parties on the matter, the Chamber informed Mr Rajčić that it would consider whether the reason given by him was, according to the Rules, a sufficient basis to grant his request.<sup>7</sup>

Discussion

4. The Chamber acknowledges that Mr Rajčić's first request to move into private session on 19 February 2009, related to information received from the Government of Croatia in the course of the ongoing Rule 54 bis proceedings and the portion of these discussions subject to Mr Rajčić's request will remain confidential in order to protect the confidential nature of this information.
5. With regard to Mr Rajčić's second request, the Chamber has considered the reason presented by Mr Rajčić for requesting private session and finds that neither the reason
