TRIAL CHAMBER III (“Chamber”) of the International Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of the Former Yugoslavia since 1991 (“Tribunal”),

SEIZED OF “Slobodan Praljak’s Motion to Add Exhibits to the Rule 65 ter (G) Exhibit List with Annexes”, filed by Counsel for the Accused Slobodan Praljak (“Praljak Defence”) on 3 April 2009 and accompanied by 4 annexes (“Motion”), in which the Praljak Defence requests that the Chamber allow it to add 253 documents, listed in the 4 annexe, to its exhibit list filed pursuant to Rule 65 ter of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence (“65 ter List”; “Rules”),

NOTING the “Prosecution Response to Slobodan Praljak’s Motion to Add 253 Exhibits to the Rule 65 ter (G) Exhibit List”, filed by the Office of the Prosecutor (“Prosecution”) on 16 April 2009 (“Response”), in which the Prosecution objects to the Motion,

NOTING the Oral Reply of the Praljak Defence presented during the hearing on 20 April 2009 (“Reply”) in which it responded to the arguments raised in part by the Prosecution in the Response,¹

NOTING the remarks from the Praljak Defence at the request of the Presiding Judge at the hearing of 23 April 2009 regarding the lack of translations for certain documents it requests be added to the 65 ter List,²

CONSIDERING that in support of the Motion, the Praljak Defence argues that the nine documents enclosed in Annex A that it seeks to add to the 65 ter List (“Critical Documents”) are critical and indispensable for the presentation of its defence case,

CONSIDERING that the Praljak Defence argues that Exhibit 3D 02029 substantiates the alibi that the Praljak Defence set out in the Notice of Alibi;³ that Exhibit 3D01888 is a log book from the HVO Main Staff that allows to determine whether a document was properly handed over to it; that Exhibits P02071 and P 02075 show the HVO’s efforts to protect the civilian population; that Exhibits 3D 02859, 3D 02860, 3D 01193 and 3D 02218 relate to the Accused Praljak's conduct, and that Exhibit 3D 03260 goes to prove that the theory of a joint criminal enterprise is erroneous because one of the participants, who is alleged to have participated in the joint criminal enterprise, had urged the United States to support the new democracies and demanded that the integrity of their borders be respected,⁴

CONSIDERING that in relation to the Critical Documents, the Praljak Defence acknowledges that they were in its possession prior to the filing of the 65 ter List but that, considering their importance, it requests the Chamber to exceptionally allow their addition to its 65 ter List,⁵

CONSIDERING that the Praljak Defence further argues that the documents in Annex B ("IPD Documents") are documents provided by the Information and Propaganda Service of the Ministry of Defence of the Republic of Croatia; that this service did not disclose the IPD Documents to it until 31 March 2008; that the IPD Documents are essential for the presentation of the Accused Praljak's case, insofar as they tend to show that the functions performed by the Accused Praljak at the Croatian Ministry of Defence were generally not connected to Bosnia and Herzegovina; that the Republic of Croatia neither controlled nor managed the HVO and that an international armed conflict did not exist between the Republic of Croatia and Bosnia and Herzegovina,⁶

CONSIDERING that, in relation to the document in Annex C, the Praljak Defence explains that, following the conflict, numerous documents were lost; that this was the case for the Accused Praljak's ABiH ID Booklet, which the Praljak Defence did not receive from the Accused Praljak's family until 16 February 2009; that this booklet is essential for the presentation of the Accused Praljak's case as it contradicts the Prosecution's description of the relationship between the Accused Praljak and the ABiH and between the ABiH and the HVO,⁷

CONSIDERING that the Praljak Defence argues that the 13 documents in Annex D ("EDS Documents") are documents that were found amongst the thousands of documents available in the electronic disclosure system; that it had to review these thousands of documents as quickly as possible but that, due to its limited resources, it was unable to locate these 13 EDS Documents prior to filing its 65 ter List; that these EDS Documents are nevertheless essential for the presentation of the Accused Praljak's case insofar as they challenge the Prosecution's theory of "reverse ethnic cleansing",⁸

CONSIDERING that in its Response, the Prosecution argues that no compelling or exceptional circumstances justify such a late addition of documents to the 65 ter List,⁹

CONSIDERING that in its Response, the Prosecution notes that the majority of the documents presented by the Praljak Defence are not available in e-court or are only available in BCS; that this unavailability severely prejudices the Prosecution, particularly considering the fact that the Accused Praljak is scheduled to begin his testimony in less than a month,¹⁰

CONSIDERING that the Prosecution further argues that, considering the information provided in the Annexes, only 32 out of the 253 proposed documents might have some relevance and could be added to the 65 ter List,¹¹

CONSIDERING that the Prosecution clarifies in particular its position on the activities of the Accused Praljak within the Ministry of Defence of the Republic of Croatia, notably that it does not dispute that these activities were not solely linked to Bosnia and Herzegovina, and argues that presenting this many documents is a waste of time and resources,¹²

CONSIDERING that in its Reply, the Praljak Defence explains that the documents were not available in the e-court system as the result of a technical error and announced that this technical error has been rectified,

CONSIDERING that at the hearing of 23 April 2009, the Praljak Defence announced that it was continuously uploading onto e-court the translations of the exhibits that it was intending to present during the testimony of the Accused Praljak, and that it hoped to have this completed before the testimony began,

CONSIDERING that the Chamber recalls that in order to grant a motion to add exhibits to the 65 ter List, these exhibits must be disclosed to the Parties sufficiently in advance in view of their presentation to a witness in court so as not to inhibit their preparations for cross-examination,

CONSIDERING that the Chamber recalls the “Decision Adopting Guidelines for the Presentation of Defence Evidence”, rendered on 24 April 2008, and particularly Guideline 8 that stipulates that in order to grant a motion to add exhibits to the 65 ter List, the Parties in question must file a motion with the Chamber to add the exhibit(s) to the 65 ter (G) List, prior to the appearance of the witness to whom the exhibits will be shown, providing the reasons why the exhibit or exhibits are essential to the case and why the exhibit or exhibits were not on the list filed pursuant to rule 65 ter (G) of the Rules,

CONSIDERING that when dealing with a motion to add exhibits to a 65 ter list, the Chamber will always carry out a prima facie examination of the reliability, relevance and probative value of the documents before it,

CONSIDERING that, in relation to the Critical Documents, the Chamber notes that they are all in e-court and are prima facie reliable, relevant and have certain probative value, as they relate to the acts and conduct of the Accused Praljak but also the state of mind of certain members whose participation in the joint criminal enterprise is alleged in the Amended Indictment of 11 June 2008 (“Indictment”),

CONSIDERING that despite the lateness of the request and the very brief explanation by the Praljak Defence, the Chamber finds that it is in the interest of justice to exceptionally allow the addition of the Critical Documents to the Praljak Defence 65 ter List,

CONSIDERING that, in relation to the IPD Documents, the Chamber notes that they are 230 in number; that the majority of them have not been translated; that the IPD

Documents numbered 3D 03405 and 3D 0391¹³ are not in e-court; that the Chamber is therefore not able to carry out a prima facie examination of the reliability, probative value and relevance of the IPD Documents for which no translation exists and for those bearing the numbers 3D 03405 and 3D 0391,

CONSIDERING that the Chamber further notes, as does the Prosecution, that, notwithstanding the absence of translations for the majority of the IPD Documents, and based on the information provided by the Praljak Defence in the Motion and in Annex B, the IPD Documents appear to be related to a subject that is not disputed by the Prosecution, namely that the functions carried out by the Accused Praljak within the Ministry of Defence of the Republic of Croatia did not imply that he concentrated solely on relations with Bosnia and Herzegovina,

CONSIDERING that the Chamber notes furthermore that, based on the information provided by the Praljak Defence in Annex B, nothing indicates that the IPD Documents relate to the existence of an international armed conflict,

CONSIDERING that, in view of the above, the Chamber decides not to allow any addition of IPD Documents to the Praljak Defence 65 ter List,

CONSIDERING that, in relation to the Accused Praljak's ABiH ID Booklet in Annex C to the Motion, the Chamber notes that the document is complete in e-court and that the Praljak Defence was unable to obtain it prior to filing its 65 ter List,

CONSIDERING that the Chamber further finds that this ID Booklet appears prima facie reliable, relevant and to have certain probative value since as it concerns the Accused Praljak's relationship with the ABiH, and it deems that it is in the interest of justice to exceptionally allow the addition of the Accused Praljak's ABiH ID Booklet to the Praljak Defence 65 ter List,

CONSIDERING that, in relation to the EDS Documents, the Chamber notes that, aside from the two documents numbered 3D 03500 and 3D 03501, the translations of the EDS Documents are not in e-court, and that the Chamber is therefore not able to carry out a prima facie examination of their reliability, probative value and relevance, ¹³ The Chamber notes that there is probably a number missing with respect to document 3D 0391.

CONSIDERING that, in relation to the EDS Documents numbered 3D 03500 and 3D 03501, the Chamber finds that they relate to a period of time subsequent to that covered by the crimes alleged in the Indictment and that the Chamber is not prima facie convinced that these EDS Documents offer a degree of relevance or probative value.

CONSIDERING furthermore that, notwithstanding the absence of translations of the other EDS Documents, and considering the information provided by the Praljak Defence in Annex D to the Motion, the Chamber notes that the EDS Documents numbered 3D 03498 and 3D 03502 also appear to concern a period subsequent to the Indictment and accordingly decides to deny the addition of the EDS Documents to the Praljak Defence 65 ter List,

FOR THE FOREGOING REASONS,

PURSUANT TO Rule 65 ter of the Rules,

PARTIALLY GRANTS the Motion, and

GRANTS the addition of the Critical Documents and the Accused Praljak's ABiH ID Booklet to the Praljak Defence 65 ter List, as indicated in the annex attached to this decision,

AND

DENIES the motion to add the other documents, for the reasons set out in the annex attached to this decision.
