The Accused

Mr. Radovan Karadžić

THIS TRIAL CHAMBER of the International Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of the former Yugoslavia since 1991 (“Tribunal”),

BEING SEISED of the Accused’s “Motion for binding Order: Government of the United Kingdom”, filed publicly on 11 September 2009 (“Motion”), whereby the Accused requests the Trial Chamber to issue a binding order pursuant to Rule 54 bis of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence of the Tribunal (“Rules”), requiring the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland (“U.K. Government”) to produce a number of documents;¹

NOTING the Accused’s acknowledgment that the U.K. Government has already provided him with two documents, and is currently conducting a search for the rest;²

NOTING further the Accused’s position that, in light of the imminent start of his trial, he cannot “wait any longer before commencing legal process to obtain the documents” but that he “remains committed to working with the [U.K. Government] to obtain the material voluntarily”;³

CONSIDERING that, in order to determine the Motion, the Trial Chamber would be assisted by hearing from the U.K. Government;

PURSUANT TO Rule 54 of the Rules,

² Motion, para. 10.

³ Motion, paras. 11–12.

HEREBY:

- (a) INVITES the U.K. Government to assist the Trial Chamber by providing a response to the Accused's Motion within 14 days from this Invitation, by close of business on 29 September 2009; and
- (b) REQUESTS the Registry to provide both the Motion and this Invitation to the U.K. Government.

Done in both English and French, the English text being authoritative.
