THE APPEALS CHAMBER of the International Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of the former Yugoslavia since 1991 (“Appeals Chamber” and “Tribunal,” respectively),

BEING SEISED of a “Motion to Replace Prosecution’s Response to Article 19 Amicus Brief with Revised Response”, filed by the Amicus Curiae Prosecutor on 8 March 2010 (“Motion”), requesting leave to file a revised response to Article 19’s Amicus Curiae Brief;

CONSIDERING that the Amicus Curiae Prosecutor submits that (1) the originally filed response exceeded the word limit due to an error in the word count calculation and that this has now been corrected; (2) certain clerical errors, such as the omission of paragraph numbers, have been corrected; and (3) no substantive arguments have been added to the revised response;¹

CONSIDERING that the Appellant has indicated that she does not object to the granting of the Motion;²

PURSUANT to Rules 54, 74, 107, and 127 of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence of the Tribunal;

HEREBY GRANTS the Motion.

Done in English and French, the English text being authoritative.

Judge Patrick Robinson
Presiding
