TRIAL CHAMBER II (“Trial Chamber”) of the International Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of the former Yugoslavia since 1991 (“Tribunal”);

BEING SEISED of the “Prosecution’s motion for admission of statement of witness ST-060 in lieu of viva voce testimony pursuant to Rule 92 bis, with annexes”, filed confidentially on 18 July 2011 (“Motion”), whereby the Prosecution seeks admission of a statement made by Mirsad Smajš on 18 December 1993 to the authorities of Republic of Bosnia and Herzegovina (“Bosnian Statement”), attached as confidential Annex B, pursuant to Rule 92 bis of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence of the Tribunal (“Rules”);¹

NOTING that neither the Defence of Mićo Stanišić nor the Defence of Stojan Župljanin filed a response;

NOTING the Prosecution submission that it had intended to tender the Bosnian Statement in its Original Motion, and although it overlooked including it in the index provided as Annex A thereof, the Prosecution included it in the DVD provided as Annex B along with the statement of witness to the Tribunal on 14 January 1998 (“ICTY Statement”);²

NOTING the Prosecution submission that the Bosnian Statement was not included in the Annex A of the Original Motion “owing to an oversight” but that “[i]t was always the intention of the Prosecution to utilise both the ICTY and Bosnian statements”;³

NOTING the Prosecution submission that the witness “treated both statements [...] as one statement” when attesting them pursuant to Rule 92 bis and that the evidence of Mirsad Smajš contained in the ICTY Statement “will be clearer” if the Bosnian Statement is also admitted;⁴

RECALLING that the Guidelines state that “the Trial Chamber will be guided by the best evidence rule” and that “[e]ach party shall produce their evidence by following this rule as far as practicable”;⁵

RECALLING that the Trial Chamber has considerable discretion while applying the best evidence rule;⁶

² Motion, paras 1-2, citing Prosecution’s motion for the admission of transcripts and written statements in lieu of viva voce testimony pursuant to Rule 92 bis, 29 Feb 2008 (“Original Motion”).

³ Motion, para. 9.

⁴ Motion, paras 8, 10.

⁵ Order further amending guidelines on the admission and presentation of evidence, 19 Aug 2011 (“Guidelines”), para. 1.

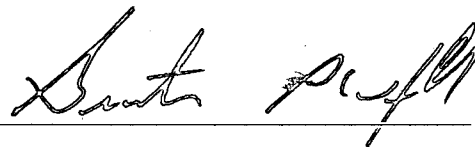

RECALLING that, in its decision of 2 November 2010, the Trial Chamber only considered and admitted the ICTY Statement of Mirsad Smajš as exhibit P2179;⁷

CONSIDERING that the Bosnian Statement does not contain any material new or additional information, being largely duplicative of the ICTY Statement;

CONSIDERING, accordingly, that the admission of the Bosnian Statement would not comply with the best evidence rule;

PURSUANT TO Rule 54 of the Rules, the Trial Chamber DENIES the Motion.

Done in English and French, the English version being authoritative.
