THIS TRIAL CHAMBER of the International Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of the Former Yugoslavia since 1991 (“International Tribunal”);

NOTING the Subpoena Ad Testificandum issued by the Chamber confidentially and ex parte on 16 June 2011 ordering Shefqet Kabashi (“Kabashi”) to appear to testify before the Chamber in the proceedings of Prosecutor v Haradinaj et al, Case No. IT-04-84bis, at the seat of the International Tribunal on 18 August 2011 or on a day to be otherwise notified;

NOTING that on 22, 23 and 24 August 2011 Kabashi appeared in the present proceedings;

NOTING that when asked questions on these three days, Kabashi repeatedly refused to answer, instead stating amongst others: “I have no reason to answer your questions and you know why”;<sup>1</sup> “may the gentleman on the right ask no further questions because I’ve got no answers to give”;<sup>2</sup> “I won’t allow you to ask questions of me because what I’ve been through, I don’t know how I have put up with being here”;<sup>3</sup> “There is nothing more I can add to this trial. It’s beyond me, it’s impossible”;<sup>4</sup> “I said what I wanted to say. I don’t think I can say something else”;<sup>5</sup>

NOTING that Rule 77(A)(i) of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence (“Rules”) provides that the Tribunal “in the exercise of its inherent power may hold in contempt those who knowingly and wilfully interfere with its administration of justice, including any person who [...] being a witness before a Chamber, contumaciously refuses or fails to answer a question”;

NOTING that pursuant to Rule 77(C)(i) of the Rules, when “a Chamber has reason to believe that a person may be in contempt of the Tribunal, it may [...] direct the Prosecutor to investigate the matter with a view to the preparation and submission of an indictment for contempt”;
