CORRIGENDUM

The Accused

Mr. Vojislav Šešelj

THIS TRIAL CHAMBER of the International Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of the Former Yugoslavia since 1991 (“Tribunal”);

RECALLING that by judgement issued on 28 June 2012, it convicted Vojislav Šešelj for one count of contempt of the Tribunal pursuant to Rule 77 of the Rules of Procedure (“Rules”) for failing to comply with several Chambers orders to remove confidential material from his website;¹

NOTING that the judgement in paragraph 58 orders lifting of the ex parte status of the “Order designating a presiding Judge” which, however, was issued confidentially on 29 March 2012;

NOTING that paragraph 30 of the judgement reads:

On 30 May 2012, the Trial Chamber was informed by the Registry’s Pro Se Office that the Office of Legal Aid and Detention Matters (“OLAD”), following a request by the Accused, had granted Dejan Mirović a privileged visit to the United Nations Detention Unit (“UNDU”) for the purpose of preparing for trial in this case. However, OLAD had denied the request in respect of Nemanja Šarović, a case manager assigned to the main Šešelj trial, because he “is not assigned to the case in question”;

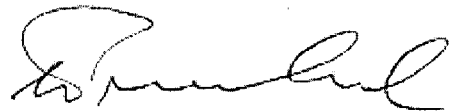

PURSUANT TO Rule 54 of the Rules;

ORDERS the Registry to lift the confidential status of the “Order designating a presiding Judge”, issued on 29 March 2012; and

ORDERS that paragraph 30 of the judgement shall read:

On 30 May 2012, the Trial Chamber was informed by the Registry’s Pro Se Office that the Office of Legal Aid and Detention Matters (“OLAD”), following a request by the Accused, had granted Dejan Mirović a privileged visit to the United Nations Detention Unit (“UNDU”) for the purpose of preparing for trial in this case. However, OLAD had denied the request in respect of Nemanja Šarović because he “is not assigned to the case in question”.

Done in English and French, the English version being authoritative.
