

Decision On the new mandate of the Independent Judicial Commission

In the exercise of the powers vested in the High Representative by Article V of Annex 10 (Agreement on Civilian Implementation of the Peace Settlement) to the General Framework Agreement for Peace in Bosnia and Herzegovina, according to which the High Representative is the final authority in theatre regarding interpretation of the said Agreement on the Civilian Implementation of the Peace Settlement; and considering in particular Article II.1.(d) of the last said Agreement, according to the terms of which the High Representative shall “Facilitate, as the High Representative judges necessary, the resolution of any difficulties arising in connection with civilian implementation”;

Recalling Article II, 8 of the last said Agreement according to the terms of which the High Representative may, in addition to the Civilian Commissions referred to specifically in Article II thereof, establish other civilian commissions to facilitate the execution of his mandate;

Recalling further paragraph XI.2 of the Conclusions of the Peace Implementation Conference held in Bonn on 9 and 10 December 1997, in which the Peace Implementation Council welcomed the High Representative’s intention to use his final authority in theatre regarding interpretation of the Agreement on the Civilian implementation of the Peace Settlement in order to facilitate the resolution of any difficulties as aforesaid “by making binding decisions, as he judges necessary” on certain issues including (under sub-paragraph (c) thereof) measures to ensure the Peace Agreement throughout Bosnia and Herzegovina and its Entities;

Mindful of paragraph I.2.a. of the Conclusions of the said Bonn Conference which recognised “that an impartial and independent judiciary” was “essential to the rule of law and reconciliation within Bosnia and Herzegovina”, that the judicial appointment process must be based on merit, and that the monitoring of the judicial system was an essential element of the aforesaid process;

Guided by paragraph II.2 of the Annex to the Declaration of the Peace Implementation Council (Madrid, 16 December 1998) which “emphasize[d] the importance of intensified judicial reform efforts, coordinated by the High Representative, to support the efforts of the authorities in BiH [Bosnia and Herzegovina]” and “urge[d] the High Representative to further develop a comprehensive judicial reform strategic plan, identifying short and longer-term priorities, in consultation with the authorities, the Council of Europe, OSCE, UNMIBH and other organizations”;

Considering the Declaration of the Peace Implementation Council (Brussels, 23/24 May 2000) calling for a truly independent and impartial judiciary to ensure the Rule of Law in all criminal, civil and commercial matters and noting “the continued need for an international oversight institution for judicial reform pending OHR’s solution of the Judicial Reform programme” and that the Council “supports the continuing efforts of the High Representative to lead the Judicial Reform effort and co-ordinate the efforts of the international community on the issue”;

Taking into account the Communiqué of the Steering Board of the Peace Implementation Council (Sarajevo, 13 July 2000) where the “Steering Board and the High Representative agreed that the issue of judicial reform and the promotion of the rule of law needed a sustained effort by the International Community and where the Communiqué went on to note: “ To this end, the High Representative will establish the Independent Judicial Commission”;

Further noting the Communiqué by the Steering Board of the Peace Implementation Council of 28 February 2002, in which the Steering Board endorsed the reinvigorated strategy for judicial reform proposed by the Independent Judicial Commission for 2002/03, among other things recognising the importance of the creation of a High Judicial Council for Bosnia and Herzegovina and the restructuring of the court system, sentiments that were reiterated in a further Communiqué of 7 May 2002;

Recalling the previous Decisions of the High Representative numbers 94/01 on Establishment of the Independent Judicial Commission, published in the “Official Gazette of Bosnia and Herzegovina”, 10/01, “Official Gazette of the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina”, 14/01 and in the “Official Gazette of the Republika Srpska”, 17/01, and 16/02 on the Mandate of the Independent Judicial Commission, published in the “Official Gazette of the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina”, 40/02 and in the “Official Gazette of the Republika Srpska”, 55/02;

Having considered the totality of the matters aforesaid, I hereby issue the following
