

Arbitral Tribunal constituted pursuant to Article 287 of the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea (the “Convention”) and article 1 of Annex VII to the Convention for the Dispute concerning the MOX Plant, International Movements of Radioactive Materials, and the Protection of the Marine Environment of the Irish Sea (“the MOX Plant case”)

(Ireland v The United Kingdom)

Order No. 1 – Ireland’s Amended Statement of Claim

The Arbitral Tribunal

Having regard to article 10, paragraph 7, of the Rules of Procedure adopted by the Arbitral Tribunal (“the Rules”);

Having regard to Ireland’s Notification under article 287 of the Convention and article 1 of Annex VII to the Convention and the Statement of Claim and Grounds on Which It Is Based dated 25 October 2001;

Having regard to the Amended Statement of Claim dated 21 January 2002 submitted by Ireland (the “Amended Statement of Claim”);

Having regard to the Explanatory Note to the Amended Statement of Claim dated 21 March 2002 communicated by Ireland to the United Kingdom and to the Arbitral Tribunal;

Having taken note of the statement of Ireland that the Explanatory Note is to be considered as a formal document accompanying the Amended Statement of Claim and should be read together with the Amended Statement of Claim;

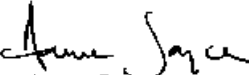

Having ascertained the views of the United Kingdom;

Gives leave to Ireland to amend its Claim as proposed in the Amended Statement of Claim.

Decides that the Amended Statement of Claim, together with the Explanatory Note of 21 March 2002, constitutes Ireland’s Statement of Claim and the Grounds on which it is Based, in accordance with article 1 of Annex VII to the Convention.

Done at The Hague this 2nd day of July two thousand and two.
