PROCEDURAL ORDER NO. 3

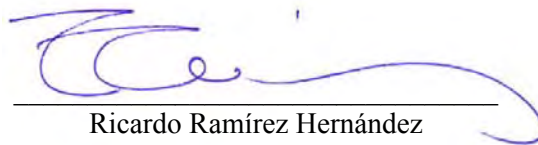

Tribunal

Prof. Ricardo Ramírez Hernández (Presiding Arbitrator)
Ms. Marney L. Cheek
Prof. Raúl Emilio Vinuesa

May 17, 2017

1. On April 21, 2017, the Tribunal issued Procedural Order No. 2 rejecting the Respondent's request for bifurcation and confirmed that the proceedings shall continue in accordance with the procedural calendar set forth in Annex 1 of Procedural Order No. 1.
2. By letter dated April 24, 2017, the Respondent requested an extension of three weeks for the submission of its Statement of Defense and Objections to Jurisdiction (the "Request") and set out the corresponding changes to the procedural calendar. The Respondent informed the Tribunal that the Claimants had concurred in the proposed extension.
3. By e-mail of April 25, 2017, the Claimants were invited to confirm whether they did concur with the proposed extension and changes to the procedural calendar.
4. By e-mail of the same date, the Claimants informed the Tribunal that they were agreeable to the Respondent's requested extension as a scheduling matter but noted that they did not necessarily agree with Respondent's rationale supporting its Request.
5. By e-mail of April 26, 2017, the Tribunal confirmed to the Parties that, in light of the Claimants' agreement to the Respondent's extension request, it granted the extension requested and the adoption of the modified procedural calendar as proposed by the Respondent in its letter dated April 24, 2017. For the sake of good order, an amended Procedural Calendar including the revised dates is enclosed herewith as Annex 1.
