SEISED of the "Confidential Prosecution Motion for Additional Protective Measures for Witness TF1-395", filed on 3 July 2008 ("Motion"),<sup>1</sup> wherein the Prosecution seeks the additional protective measures for Witness TF1-395 of image distortion, voice distortion, and closed or private sessions if necessary<sup>2</sup>, as an augmentation of those protective measures already in place, viz. use of a pseudonym, non-disclosure of the identity of the witness to the public and the delayed disclosure of the identity of the witness to the Defence<sup>3</sup>, on the grounds that

- i) the witness has expressed real concern about his safety and privacy and that of his family, in part because he lives in a remote location;<sup>4</sup>
- ii) the witness' fear has an objective foundation given the general security situation in Sierra Leone and Liberia;<sup>5</sup> and
- iii) protective measures sought during the pre-trial stage of proceedings were not intended to preclude the Prosecution seeking additional measures during the trial stage of proceedings;<sup>6</sup>

NOTING the "Confidential Defence Response to 'Prosecution Motion for Additional Protective Measures for Witness TF1-395'", filed on 14 July 2008 ("Response"),<sup>7</sup> wherein the Defence submits that the Motion lacks objective evidence and specificity about the risks to Witness TF1-395 to justify the additional protective and requests that the Motion be denied;<sup>8</sup>

NOTING FURTHER the "Confidential Prosecution Reply to 'Confidential Defence Response to 'Prosecution Motion for Additional Protective Measures for Witness TF1-395'", filed on 16 July 2008 ("Reply"),<sup>9</sup> wherein the Prosecution submits that there has been no substantial change in TF1-395's circumstances since the grant of the existing protective measures and that the additional measures are effectively a continuation of the existing pre-trial measures and that it is not required to demonstrate that the existence of threats or fears as regards specific witnesses;<sup>10</sup>

MINDFUL of Articles 16(4) and 17(2) of the Statute of the Special Court for Sierra Leone ("Statute") and Rules 26bis, 73, 75, 78 and 79(A)(ii) of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence ("Rules");

HOLDING that a party seeking to augment protective measures granted to a witness should present supporting evidence capable of establishing on the preponderance of probabilities that the witness is in need of such additional protection;<sup>11</sup>
