1. By way of this order, the Pre-Trial Judge informs the participants in the proceedings of the fact that on 30 November 2012 he rendered a confidential and ex parte decision¹ relating to the Prosecution confidential and ex parte application of 14 November 2012 for leave not to file, pursuant to Rule 91 (G) of the Rules, certain documents (“the Application”).²

2. Indeed, insofar as the participants in the proceedings were advised of the existence of the Application,³ it is appropriate that they be informed of the actions that have been taken in response thereto.

3. In view of the situation described by the Prosecution and recalling that the Tribunal also has a specific mandate to ensure the protection of victims and witnesses in accordance with Article 16 (2) of the Statute, the Pre-Trial Judge, by virtue of his general power to issue orders necessary for the purposes of the investigation or for the preparation of the trial, as provided for by Rule 77 of the Rules, considered the request for temporary suspension of the Prosecution’s disclosure obligations to be well-founded, in order to allow it to undertake certain steps.

FOR THESE REASONS,

Pursuant to Rule 77 (A) of the Rules,

THE PRE-TRIAL JUDGE,

STATES that, by way of the confidential and ex parte decision of 30 November 2012, he granted the Application; and

STATES that he ordered the Prosecution, at the latest on 10 December 2012, either to seize the Victims and Witnesses Unit for consultation and to inform the Pre-Trial Judge thereof, or to disclose the information and documents in accordance with its obligations pursuant to Rule 91 of the Rules.
