

DECISION No. 35/1996 (PERU)

Communication addressed to the Government of Peru on 4 May 1994.

Concerning: Mercedes Milagros Núñez Chipana, on the one hand, and the Republic of Peru, on the other.

1. The Working Group on Arbitrary Detention, in accordance with the revised methods of work adopted by it and in order to carry out its task with discretion, objectivity and independence, forwarded to the Government concerned the above-mentioned communication received by it and found to be admissible, in respect of allegations of arbitrary detention reported to have occurred.
2. The Working Group notes the information forwarded by the Government concerned in respect of the case in question more than two years after the transmittal of the letter by the Working Group.
3. The Working Group also notes that the Government concerned has informed the Group that the above-mentioned person is no longer in detention.
4. In the context of the information received and having examined the available information, the Working Group, without prejudging the nature of the detention, decides to file the case of Mercedes Milagros Núñez Chipana, under the terms of paragraph 14.1 (a) of its methods of work.

Adopted on 17 September 1996.
