Trial Chamber IV (“Chamber”) of the International Criminal Court (“Court”) in the case of the Prosecutor v. Abdallah Banda Abakaer Nourain and Saleh Mohammed Jerbo Jamus (“Banda and Jerbo case”), pursuant to Rule 132(2) of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence (“Rules”), issues the following Order on the scheduling of a hearing and status conferences (“Order”).

Background and submissions

1. On 6 January 2012, the defence of Messrs Abdallah Banda Abakaer Nourain and Saleh Mohammed Jerbo Jamus (“defence”) filed its “Defence Request for a Temporary Stay of Proceedings” (“Request”).¹ In a separate filing,² the defence requested the Chamber to hold a hearing to, inter alia, assist the Chamber in the resolution of the novel issues raised in the Request.³
2. On 30 January 2012, the Office of the Prosecutor (“prosecution”) filed its response to the Request and defence request for a hearing,⁴ in which it argues, inter alia, that the issues in this case are straightforward and an oral hearing would not assist in addressing the “mixed questions of fact and law” because most facts are not in dispute.⁵ It further submits that, if an oral hearing is held, the Chamber should not allow the parties to present facts as to which the other party lacks notice.⁶
