

Decision No. 64/1993 (People's Republic of China)

Communication addressed to the Government of the People's Republic of China on 3 February 1992.

Concerning: Zhe Fan, on the one hand, and the People's Republic of China, on the other.

1. The Working Group on Arbitrary Detention, in accordance with the methods of work adopted by it, and in order to carry out its task with discretion, objectivity and independence, forwarded to the Government concerned the above-mentioned communication received by it and found to be admissible, in respect of allegations of arbitrary detention reported to have occurred.
2. The Working Group notes with appreciation the information forwarded by the Government concerned in respect of the case in question within 90 days of the transmittal of the letter by the Working Group.
3. The Working Group further notes that the Government concerned has informed the Group that the above-mentioned person is no longer in detention.
4. In the context of the information received by the Working Group, having applied its mind to the available information, it is of the opinion that no special circumstances warrant the Group to consider the nature of the detention of the person released.
5. The Working Group, without prejudging the nature of the detention, decides to file the case of Zhe Fan in terms of paragraph 14 (a) of its Methods of Work.

Adopted on 9 December 1993.
